

antipathy	applicable	asset	beset	compassion
decorum	duress	exuberant	facsimile	imbibe
implacable	infinitesimal	innocuous	militate	patent
prowess	sedate	stentorian	stipulate	ultimatum

Directions: Place each word next to the correct definition.

- _____ (n) compulsion by threat; forcible confinement
- _____ (v) to require as a condition of an agreement
- _____ (n) a strong dislike, hostile feeling
- _____ (v) to attack from all sides; to surround ; harassed, troubled
- _____ (n) a final proposal or statement of conditions
- _____ (n) proper behavior, good taste; orderliness
- _____ (adj) harmless, inoffensive, insignificant
- _____ (n) distinguished bravery; superior skill or ability
- _____ (adj) capable of being applied; relevant, suitable
- _____ (v) to have effect or force on or against someone or something
- _____ (n) sympathy for another's suffering; pity
- _____ (adj) extremely loud
- _____ (Adj) not to be satisfied or pacified; unyielding
- _____ (adj) high-spirited, enthusiastic, unrestrained, excessive
- _____ (adj) so small as to be almost measurable; minute
- _____ (n) an exact copy
- _____ (adj) exclusive rights over an invention; (v) obtaining such rights
- _____ (adj) quiet, settled, sober (adj) to administer a tranquilizer
- _____ (n) something of value; a resource; an advantage
- _____ (v) to drink, to take in (to ingest), to absorb

Fill in the following blanks to create examples of how the words are used:

- A rich and _____ growth of the plants is a first essential step in successful tea cultivation.
- In the impeachment proceedings against Johnson, Sumner was one of the president's most _____ assailants.
- Unable to _____ the riddles true message, the treasure hunter never found the secret ship The Black Pearl.
- For a time the Cid, already renowned throughout Spain for his _____ in war, was even advanced by the king's favour and entrusted with high commissions of state.
- Before I agree to close the deal, I must _____ a few requirements that must be met before I sign on the dotted line.