

Vocabulary Worksheet For Lesson 4 Level E

Directions: Place the each word next to the correct definition.

affiliated	ascertain	attainment	bequeath	cogent
converge	disperse	esteem	expunge	finite
invulnerable	malevolent	nonchalant	omniscient	panacea
scrupulous	skulk	supercilious	uncanny	venial

1. _____(v) to move about stealthily; to lie in hiding
2. _____ (adj) easily excused; pardonable
3. _____(n) an accomplishment; the act of achieving
4. _____(adj) having limits; lasting for a limited time
5. _____(adj) associated, connected
6. _____(adj) cool and confident, unconcerned
7. _____(v) to find out
8. _____(adj) not able to be wounded or hurt; shielded against
9. _____(n) a remedy for all ills; cure-all; an answer to all problems
10. _____(adj) strange, mysterious, beyond explanation
11. _____(v) to give or pass on as an inheritance
12. _____(adj) spiteful; showing ill will
13. _____(adj) forceful, convincing; to the point but forceful
14. _____(adj) attending thoroughly to details; having high moral standards
15. _____(v) to regard highly (n) a highly favorable opinion or judgment
16. _____(v) to move toward one point, to come together toward one area
17. _____(adj) proud and mocking (contemptuous); showing scorn because of a feeling of superiority
18. _____(v) to erase, obliterate, destroy
19. _____(v) to scatter, spread far and wide
20. _____(adj) knowing everything; having unlimited awareness and understanding

Directions: Place the correct word in each blank.

1. When the child was caught, the look in his eyes was so _____ that it made the parents wonder if he actually caused the deadly accident.
2. Some people believe that quick fixes are a _____ for the detriments of mankind.
3. During the debate, the scholar's _____ expression was quickly erased when his previous statement was correct with irrefutable facts.
4. The sudden rush of water coming from the broken dam caused all the residents to quickly _____ in fear of dying.
5. When researching a felon's illegal activity, the attorney found that his juvenile record had been _____, which left the attorney wondering what information it may have contained.